INDEX TO VOLUME II.

- ABSTRACTS of papers and reports of cases presented before the section on laryngology and rhinology of the New York Academy of Medicine, 281, 384.
- A case of hyperæsthesia retinæ, 325.
- A cause of autophony, 369.
- A convenient prism scale, 262.
- Acute inflammation of the ear, cocaine in the treatment of, 97.
- Acute laryngitis, 160.
- Acute suppurative otitis media following "la grippe," 353.
- Acute suppuration of the middle ear accompanied by cone-shaped bulging of the membrana tympani, 134.
- Adenoids, a contributive factor in aural affections, 338.
- Adenoid granulations in an infant six weeks old, operation, 102.
- Adhesion of one-half of the soft palate to the pharyngeal wall together with absence of uvula, 138.
- A manual of clinical ophthalmology, 185.
- A method of making microscopic preparations of the ear transparent, 368.
- Amblyopia, reflex, 87.
- Anginas, 93.
- Aniline dyes in ear diseases, 173.
- Ankylosis of the crico-arytenoid articulations, 50.
- An uncommon sequela of an intra-nasal operation, 131.
- An unusual case of dislocation of the lens, 86.
- Application of the galvano-cantery in diseases of the nose, throat and ears, 101.
- Atrophic rhinitis, treatment of, 56, 100.
- Atropine and glasses in monocular diplopia, 91.
- Attempt to correct hypermetropia and hypermetropic astigmatism, in patients under forty, without resorting to a mydriatic, 89.
- Audiphone as applied to otological diagnosis, 95.
- Auditory canal, furunculosis of, 246.
- Auricle, tumors of, 217.
- Ayres, S. C., hematoma auris, 44.
- BACON, GORHAM, tumors of the auricle, 217.
- Baker, Chas. H., Report of a case of Thiersch's skin grafting on the eyeball, 326.
- Barck, C., contribution to affections of the petro-mastoid, 170.
- On tattooing the cornea, 295.
- The results of the use of the electro-magnet for the extraction of foreign bodies from the eye, with a report of ten cases, 317.
- Barret, R. D., furunculosis of the external auditory canal, 246.
- Bates, W. H., report of a case of plastic operation for the repair of the inner canthus, 233.
- Bennett, O. Prescott, a report of cases of congenital bony occlusion of the posterior nares, 50.
- Ankylosis of the crico-arytenoid articulation, 50.
- Berry, George A., diseases of the eye, 298.
- Bettman, Boerne, case of acute suppuration of the middle ear accompanied by cone-shaped bulging of the membrana tympani, 134.
- Ripening immature cataracts by direct trituration, 26.
- Black, G. Melville, operations upon the eye for cosmetic effect, 284.
- Blood effusions between the retina and vitreous body, 5.
- Book notices, 104, 184, 298, 388.
- Boasworth, F. H., diseases of the throat, 104.
- Bull, Charles Stedman, gonorrhœal irido-choroiditis, 109.
- Burnett, C. H., diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the ear, nose and throat, 298, 389.
- Bushee, G. R., constitutional treatment of catarrh, 54.
- CAMPBELL, JAMES T., the treatment of acute catarrhal inflammation of the middle ear, 47.

- Case of acute suppuration of the middle ear accompanied by cone-shaped bulging of the membrana tympani, 124.
- Chronic purulent discharge from ear, treatment of, 98.
- Chronic rhinitis, 99.
- Clalborne, John Herbert, adhesion of one-half of the soft palate to the pharyngeal wall, together with absence of uvula, 138.
- Congenital hiatus in the posterior pillar of the fauces on one side, 137.
- Clinical history of central circumscribed chorio-retinitis, 15.
- Clinical notes on a case of epithelioma of the tongue treated by methyl blue, 63.
- Cocaine in the treatment of acute inflammations of the ear, 97.
- Coleman, W. Franklin, Does homatropine, as generally used, reveal the whole error of refraction, 70.
- Congenital bony occlusion of the posterior nares, 50.
- Congenital hiatus in the posterior pillar of the fauces on one side, 137.
- Congenital occlusion of the right choana; galvano-cautery operation: death six days after operation, 102.
- Constitutional treatment of catarrh, 54.
- Convenient prism scale, 262.
- Cornu cutaneum of the right upper eyelid, 148.
- Contribution to affections of the petromastoid, 170.
- Crico-arytenoid joint, rheumatism of 347.
- DENDRITIC ulceration of the cornea, 168.
- DeSchweinitz, G. E., cornu cutaneum of the right upper eyelid, 148.
- Gumma of the iris; secondary cataract; preliminary iridectomy followed by extraction; glaucoma; recovery with excellent vision, 143.
- Large pterygium and moderate symblepharon following a lime burn; removal and successful transplantation of a Thiersch's skin graft upon the bulbar conjunctiva, 147.
- Nuclear cataract; artificial ripening by direct trituration; extraction, followed by prolonged and at times violent dementia; recovery of reason and good vision, 145.
- Dessar, Leonard A., notes from current American Otolological literature, 96, 97, 98, 175, 176, 177, 367.
- A cause of autophony, 369.
- A method of making macroscopic preparations of the ear transparent, 368.
- Acute suppurative otitis media following "la grippe," 370.
- Excision of the stapes, 370.
- Exploratory opening of the tympanum and subsequent operations in the middle ear without general anaesthesia, 370.
- Nasal douches and sprays, 368.
- Partial myringectomy and removal of the malleus and stapes for the relief of the lesions of chronic otitis media, 367.
- Removal of the drumhead and ossicles in diseases of the middle ear, 369.
- Surgical pathology of the mastoid process, 371.
- The nasal douche, 293.
- Dickinson, Wm., sympathetic irritation, 308.
- Sympathetic ophthalmia, 311.
- Diphtheria, treatment of, 98.
- Dislocation of the lens, an unusual case of, 86.
- Dislocation of the lens occurring in cataract extraction, 250.
- Diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the ear, nose and throat, 298.
- Diseases of the eye, 298.
- Diseases of the throat, 104.
- Disorders of the ears in typhoid fever, 96.
- Does homatropine, as generally used, reveal the whole error of refraction, 70.
- A case of hyperaesthesia retinae, 325.
- Dunn, John, a case of keratitis dendritica, 139.
- Three cases of dislocation of the lens occurring in cataract extraction, showing three of the positions the lens may assume, 250.
- Question as to the regeneration of the vitreous, 250.
- EARACHE from diseased teeth, 177.
- Ear affections of typhoid fever, 176.
- Early diagnosis of mastoid disease and operation as a life-saving method of prevention of pyemic and meningitic complications, 96.

Early incision of the membrana tympani in acute simple otitis media, 94.
 Ear of man and the organ of Corti, 150.
 Ecchymoma conjunctivæ and ecchymosis of the lids from compression of the cervical vessels, 149.
